

JOHNNY DAWKINS BASKETBALL CAMPS

JOHNNY DAWKINS

Johnny Dawkins was named UCF's seventh head men's basketball coach on Mar. 23, 2016. In his first three seasons as the Knights' Head Coach, he has led UCF to average over 20 wins, including a win over #12 ranked Cincinnati and an NIT Final Four appearance in his first year.

This past season, Dawkins led the Knights to 24 wins and to the program's first ever at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament. As a 9 Seed, the Knights won their first ever NCAA tournament game against 8 Seed VCU before falling to top overall seed Duke. Dawkins arrived in Orlando after an eight-year stint at Stanford, where he led the Cardinal to five postseason appearances, including an NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2014, and four 20-win seasons.

Prior to his stint in Palo Alto, California, Dawkins coached for 10 years under the legendary Mike Krzyzewski at his alma mater Duke. He played for the Blue Devils from 1982-86, where he was named the 1986 Naismith National Player of the Year and helped lead Duke to three NCAA Tournament berths, including an NCAA National Championship Game appearance in 1986. Drafted 10th overall as a lottery pick, Dawkins played 9 seasons in the NBA for the San Antonio Spurs, Philadelphia 76ers, and Detroit Pistons.
